

Tuesday Night Club

The next Tuesday Night Club gathering is going to take place on August 27th beginning around 7pm.

The idea behind the TNC is to offer one location, one night per week where members, guests and their friends can gather without invitations or RSVPs.

The emphasis is on a relaxed, informal atmosphere with open conversation and many wines tasted. Every participant is requested to bring or buy one bottle of wine from the CWC Wine List, while a full a la carte menu is available.

- Members may choose to bring or buy a bottle of wine from the CWC Wine List.
- Guests are requested to buy a bottle of wine from the CWC Members' Wine List as their contribution.
- All wines are available at Members' Prices to all Tuesday Night Club attendants (Members and Guests).

No reservations are required to join. It is just a friendly gathering to share wine and good conversation.

We look forward to seeing you at the next Tuesday Night Club.
